ImageFIRST Teambuilding Results in Donation to The Boys & Girls Club of Philadelphia

King of Prussia, PA – January 30, 2016 – ImageFIRST Healthcare Laundry Specialists associates recently took part in a corporate social responsibility experience during their meeting in Wayne, PA to help create a colorful, stimulating work of art to help brighten the walls of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Philadelphia. The event was held on January 27, 2017.

The ImageFIRST team worked with Impact 4 Good (<http://impact4good.com/>), a company that runs socially responsible teambuilding activities, to oversee their community service activity. ImageFirst chose an activity entitled “Community HeART.”

Associates were broken up into teams and competed in art-themed challenges. They were then given supplies needed to paint individual panels that were pre-sketched in a paint-by-numbers style. These individual panels formed a large 30-panel mural to be donated to the beneficiary. After letting the panels dry, participants were then asked to help create “the big picture” by placing their panels together to form the final mural.

Upon revealing the finished mural, a check for $250 was also sent to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Philadelphia!

Founded in 1887, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia’s mission is to enable all young people, especially those who need the Club the most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens.

Jason Newman, a Program Director at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia graciously thanked the group via video for their time and effort in putting together this gracious donation. He later added, “On behalf of the Boys & Girls Club of Philadelphia, I want to extend this word of thanks for the mural that you’ve donated to our club. Your mural, and donation, will serve as a reminder to these, and other amazing young people at our club, that a smile and a positive attitude can go a long way to making life better.”
